

Professional Development Opportunity

Save the Dates

April 5th and April 12th

4:00pm – 6:00pm

PTU Office

99 Corliss Street

April 5th:

Managing Behavior in School Communities I: Frustrated with your attempts to manage your students' disruptive behavior? Learn about the critical stages in the Acting-Out Cycle and effective strategies for de-escalating disruptive behavior

April 12th:

Managing Behavior in School Communities II: Are your current classroom management techniques really working? Learn how to better understand, recognize, and analyze a broad range of student behaviors and effective strategies to intervene and de-escalate them.

Please RSVP to the following link: <https://goo.gl/forms/iBFbWRYafRp1Apw93>

This is a wonderful opportunity for anyone who is having difficulty managing behaviors in the classroom, as well as for anyone that has been placed on a PIP with a focus on Classroom Management, or anyone looking for new strategies to help strengthen their classroom management “toolbox”.

This PD is a research-based, AFT/RIFT/PTU collaboration facilitated by trained PTU members!!!